Property Description

Beautiful Home and Guesthouse in Finca Se Ve Bien. This gracious 2-story home with its especially refined look and feel is in the coveted gated community of Finca Se Ve Bien. Conveniently located just a minute's drive between Quepos and the route to San Jose, Casa Crespi is surrounded by nature and gorgeous views of the Fila Chonta mountains making it an oasis of peace and quiet. Upon entering the principal residence, one is impressed with the light and airy look and feel owing to the clean whites, windows on every wall, and warm clay-colored porcelanato floor tiles. The inviting layout of the main floor draws the eye effortlessly with a seating area leading through sliding glass doors to a lovely porch on the right, a central staircase, and the dining area leading to the kitchen on the left. The main floor also has one bedroom with a full bath as well as a half bath for visitors. Upstairs is the master bedroom featuring two balconies, one on either side for a variety of views, and a full bath with double sinks, a bidet, and a continuation of the soft clay-colored porcelanato tiles throughout.
