Property Description

Located in the charming beachside village of Playa Avellanas, the Drift Away Lodge presents a lucrative investment prospect near some of Costa Rica's most stunning and secluded beaches. This resort serves as a peaceful retreat where visitors can relax and immerse themselves in nature. Carefully constructed with environmental sustainability in mind, the lodge features locally sourced materials, an emphasis on recycling, and an eco-conscious swimming pool maintenance system that reduces the use of harmful chemicals. Surrounded by lush tropical foliage, the lodge comprises 8 cozy rooms and 4 private villas, each thoughtfully decorated with handcrafted furniture, driftwood accents, and soothing tones. Guests can expect comfortable amenities such as memory foam mattresses, hypoallergenic pillows, air conditioning, private bathrooms, and in-room coffee-making facilities. The villas offer additional conveniences like kitchenettes, refrigerators, and TVs, along with inviting verandas perfect for savoring morning coffee.
