Property Description

From the moment you enter this architectural dream, your gaze will feast upon the surrounding jungle, ocean, mountain, and valley views. Watch the never-ending wildlife of toucans, scarlet macaws, monkeys, and more. The location can't be beat! Just minutes to downtown Uvita! As you approach the home, an ample carport provides plenty of parking for ease of living. Enter the custom cedar front door to find yourself surrounded by luxury appointments that would impress even the most discerning buyer. Style and comfort haven't been sacrificed in the design of this impressive home. Immediately as you enter, a guest bedroom is to your left, offering convenience for guests who need a main floor space. Shortly thereafter, the chef's kitchen greets you with a large center island topped with porcelain, sleek cedar cupboards, and a pantry big enough to store anything and everything! Hosting gatherings is a breeze, as the open concept design is surrounded by large glass windows, allowing you to soak in the views from every angle.
