Property Description

Nestled in its own private paradise, this stunning property boasts breathtaking ocean views stretching down the southern coastline, all surrounded by nearly 360 degrees of untouched Costa Rican jungle - a protected legal reserve teeming with vibrant wildlife like macaws, toucans, sloths, and monkeys. Below the home sits a rarity for this area, a year round creek, offering soothing sounds throughout the year. This single level masterpiece, built in 2022, is perfect for a large family or a couple seeking a serene retirement haven. The open-concept design seamlessly connects modern luxury with natural beauty. As one of the finest luxury properties Portalon, the oversized great room features top of the line appliances, including a high grade electric convection oven, a five-burner propane cooktop, a 28 cubic foot refrigerator with an ice maker, a dishwasher, and a garbage disposal. All are complemented by expertly crafted cabinetry and stunning Italian imported quartz countertops.
